

EVENT

EuroNoize was a live music event modelled on the Eurovision song contest, but featuring a bizarre cast of DiY, alternative and underground subpop bands. It took place on May 23rd 2019 at the Scala. It featured musicians from across Europe who performed one new song in front of a live audience. The event was streamed live online so the audience could cast their vote from afar for their favourite performance of the evening.

THE EVENT WAS HELD ON THE 23RD OF MAY, 2019 AT SCALA, LONDON.

RESULTS

EuroNoize is a celebration of the obscure, the niche and the uncategorizable, music that runs deeper than national borders. It represents the secret international fellowship of punx and weirdos stretching from Russia to Ireland.
